THE OZARK MOUNTAIN DAREDEVILS NOW HEAR THIS!

The "now" part of The Ozark Mountain Daredevils' Now Hear This! album has finally arrived. In 1990, a decade and a half after their two huge radio hits, "If You Wanna Get to Heaven" and "Jackie Blue," the Daredevils made another in a string of great albums that would only be available on cassette tape at the merch table of their live shows. It was a great album that reflected the fun-loving, rocking, rootsy sound of this midwestern band of brothers, and it included the same three founding members (John Dillon, Steve Cash, Supe Granda) who would keep the band churning well into the 21st Century as well. Now Hear This! found the band in top form, still writing and singing as well as they had when they were on A&M Records. But self-released cassette only releases are ephemeral. That is, until a cool label like SteadyBoy Records gets it out there so it can be heard thirty-five years later at a time when the band is still working the road to enthusiastic crowds, half a century after the whole Daredevils experiment had begun. And you gotta hear this. Now.
